Large Attendance at Harvest Supper —Greenville Football Team Meets Norwich Independents Sunday—Personal Notes.

There was a large attendance at the harvest supper held in the Greenville Congregational church on Wednesday evening. The tables were decorated with flowers and autumn leaves and a most attractive bill of fare was presented. The supper arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Stewart Murray, chairman, Mrs. John A. McDougal, Mrs.
Marguerite Burton and Mrs. James Hollin. Assisting these ladies were the following members of the Euphonia circle of the King's Daughters, acting as waitresses: Mrs. Herbert Buchanan, Mrs. Anton Nelson, Mrs. Louis Potter, Mrs. John McWilliam, Mrs. James Sevin and Mrs. Andrew Prentice.

A good sum was realized from the sale of tickets and the affair was a complete success.

Greenville vs. Norwich Independents The Norwich Independents claim that the Greenville lads are to receive a disgraceful defeat on Sunday week when the two teams meet. The surprise comes in the form of a 21-pound left guard which the Independents are importing from the university of Vermont, to assist in the general cleaning up of which they feel sure will result in a heavy addition to the Norwich team in shape for Sunday's game on the Cranberry.

Pomona Grange Meeting at Groton

First Time It Was Ever Held There—Interesting Addresses and Admission of New Members.

Notwithstanding the stormy weather that prevailed hereabouts Thursday morning, Patrons of Husbandry in large numbers from practically every section of this county assembled in Groton at an early hour for the purpose of attending the regular business meeting of the London County Pomona grange, No. 6, P. of H., and enjoy the hospitality of Groton grange, No. 176, P. of H., and to avail themselves of the most excellent refreshments that the Pomona grange has to offer. A splendid day was enjoyed by all. Considerable business of importance to the order was transacted during the morning's closed session, the hospitality of the Groton people could not have been surpassed, and it was generally agreed by all at the conclusion of the interesting programme given in the afternoon that it was one of the very best that had been held to for many a day. All told, Thursday was an important day for New London county grange people and one that will long be remembered.

Business Session.
The meeting was held in A. O. U. W.
Hall and was called to order by Worthy Master Everett P. Barnes of Preston grange. The order of business was read and the meeting opened in full form. Routine business was transacted, reports from the recently appointed and legislative committees were received and a new class of ten members were voted into membership. Those newly elected members are as follows: Jennie A.
Davis, Norwich; Florence C. Jones, Myrtle; and the following from Groton:
C. J. Macquardt, Mrs. M. L. Star, Mrs. J. R. Haley, John R. Haley, Elizabeth Gregory, A. F. Hewitt, P. H. Morgan and James Morgan. At the same time the newly elected class were being initiated into the fifth degree. Twelve others who had previously been obligated were formally received into membership, making a total of twenty-two that took the fifth degree in full form. During the course of the morning letters received from the various granges of the county were read, and both democrats and republicans, and explaining their attitude on the proposed parcels post bill, were read by members of the legislative committee and discussed freely by the entire body. Following the reading of these letters, several vigorous speeches were delivered, urging that the grange members support those candidates whose past record and future promise gave assurance of a faithful and helpful representation in congress, regardless of party affiliation or sympathies.

Dinner Served.
At the noon hour, in the basement of the spacious A. O. U. W. hall, an elaborate dinner was served by the lady members of the entertaining grange and enjoyed by all. A short social time followed and at just 1:30 o'clock the speakers began their address and given into the charge of Worthy Lecturer G. Warren Davis.

Vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. E. P.
Barnes of Preston grange, then the business of the programme and elicited a generous applause.

Worthy Master E. E. Crouch of the Groton grange, on behalf of the host, represented, extended a most cordial welcome to all. Brief reference was made by him to the fact that the first time Pomona had ever come there to partake of their hospitality, as Groton grange was one of the youngest subordinate granges in the country.
For this reason, he said, the visiting brothers and sisters were all the more welcome.

E. J. Hemstead of Monomac grange made the response in his usual entertaining manner. He spoke of the different sections that were represented at the gathering, the important place in history Groton occupied, and concluded by a careful recital of the untold advantages to be derived, along so many lines, by these Pomona meetings.

R. J. Jodoin spoke.
Lecturer Davis then introduced to the large assembly, in a few pleasing words, the Hon. Raymond J. Jodoin of Baltic, democratic nominee for congressman from the Third district, who was to speak on parcels post.

Mr. Jodoin, a native of France, an American as well as for Aliens. An enthusiastic outburst of applause followed, and the chairman of the committee that was extended to Mr. Jodoin as he took his place on the platform was highly complimentary.

Mr. Jodoin expressed his great pleasure for the kindly reception that was accorded him, and told how happy he was to be present at this gathering.
He then spoke of the parcels post subject he had been called to speak upon, and as a preliminary to his speech proper explained, in brief, just what parcels post means. He then referred, in a few words, the several objections urged against this much talked of bill, and concluded by giving in detail the reasons why it should be passed by congress.

Referring to the action of the last congress on this subject, Mr. Jodoin spoke, in part, as follows:

Local hunters claim that there is plenty of game in this vicinity, and the bags brought in seem to bear out this statement.

Taftville Association Football Club.
Owing to the fact that the game with Westerly, scheduled for next Saturday, has been postponed, the local team has been unable to arrange for a game for that date. Therefore a practice game will be played on the Providence street grounds with a team to be picked up in the city.

This game ought to put the team winning condition for its battle with the Sterling team, a week from Saturday.

Wilfrid White Returns from California.
Wilfrid White has returned to Taft-ville after two months spent in Bakersfield, Cal., where he has been employed in the oil fields owned by the Santa Fe railroad.

Personal Notes.
John Kyle has gone to Boston where he intends to take up the trade of ma-chinit.

Mrs. William Brierley of Ballouville, formerly of Taftville, is visiting with relatives here.

The Misses Delma and Rosie D'Av-ignon go to Providence today, where they will visit with relatives until Sunday.

BALTIC
Naturalization Club to Start with 75
Members—Harold Remmert Breaks
His Arm.

At a recent meeting of Council Jod-oin, No. 183, of Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amérique, a committee of five was appointed to look after the preliminary work of organizing a naturalization club. The committee reports that the club will start with 75 members.

Miss Lucie Smith of Providence is the guest of local friends.

Arm Broken by Fall.
Harold Remmert, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Remmert, met with a painful accident Wednesday morning while peddling milk from a milk wagon on the street. He fell from the wagon and landed on his arm, breaking it in two places below the elbow.

"Congress, which is the law making body, controls both our foreign and domestic postal service. Yet in face of the fact that the postal service is an enormous and of our entire agricultural population and a large majority of our whole people for the establishment of a domestic parcels post (known as parcels post), at least as cheap and extensive as our foreign postal express, the general assembly of the Sixty-first congress controlling the postal committee of the house of representatives deliberately refused to allow the parcels post bill to pass. The reduction of our postal expense to 25 cents a pound, either as provided by the republican bill, or by the democratic Suzer bill with the eleven pound limit.
These reasons were given: That any change in our domestic sixteen cents a pound, four pound limit, parcels post would necessarily imply the quick extension of our postal export to 25 pounds, 50 pounds, 200 pounds, to the full capacity of our transport facilities, and would, therefore, substitute public service for private express companies."

A comparison was made between the rates charged on foreign packages and on domestic package, and proved most interesting.

Following Mr. Jodoin's address, Postmaster Potter of Myrtle was called upon for a few remarks along the lines of parcels post, and responded by reading the important reasons that urged him to support the measure.

He told of the discussions he had listened to on the topic while attending the legislative committee conventions, and explained to his audience matters of interest in connection with the United States postal service.

Lecturer Davis then took the floor, and in a spirited and interesting manner spoke on the topic under discussion. He took up the letters that had been received from the several candidates for public office, referring to the parcels post bill, and urged his hearers to do what they could to elect men to congress that would really represent them and support the parcels post measure.

A recitation, Deacon Brown's Courtship, was then given by Mrs. Sarah Spink and was thoroughly enjoyed.

Fight at Fort Griswold.
A few moments were taken by Will H. Barron of Danielson, who spoke regarding the Patrons' exchange, and then the Hon. Abel P. Tanner of Koudelong grange, a magnificent address on the burning of Fort Griswold and the Fight of Fort Griswold.

His address lasted for over an hour, and not only during this time did the audience listen with the greatest interest, but the speaker was warmly applauded at the close of his address.
Special reference was made to very early conditions in the country, where the parcels post bill was first introduced, and the speaker pointed out the great political unrest was noted; and the heroism of our forefathers was called to mind for purposes of inspiration in our present everyday life. Then, in his own masterly style, and with splendid effect, Mr. Tanner gave a vivacious and interesting account of the events that led up to the burning of New London. His whole description was listened to with eagerness, and the speaker's words were heartily applauded given him was but an evidence of the deep pleasure he had given to all.

Chaplain Goodenough spoke.
Rev. G. F. Goodenough, worthy chaplain of the Connecticut state grange, was present, and talked for a brief period on the parcels post subject. He pointed out the great need of the parcels post in England and in Australia, he stated, and therefore should work well here.

The three objections urged against the parcels post bill, the country's ruin, the damage to the express company's business and the fact that there was a large postal deficit at present, were all discussed in detail. Mr. Jodoin interesting and new facts were brought out and were highly appreciated.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the Pomona grange, that takes place the third Thursday in December, in Groton, the house of Deacon Brown, and the members of Groton grange for their hospitality during the day, and the programme was concluded by the singing of America.

DIVORCE CASES SCHEDULED
On List to Be Heard at Short Calendar Session Today.

There will be a short calendar session of the superior court at New London today, when five of the most interesting divorce cases are scheduled to be heard, as follows:

Minnie Whitney will ask divorce from Iva E. Pearson.

Ernest Pearson will seek divorce from
Iva E. Pearson.

William H. Hall will ask a decree from Allice Maud Rolfe.

Frances J. U. Webster will ask a decree from Harry B. Webster.

There is considerable short calendar business to come before Judge Clark in the session in addition to the divorce matters.

Prof. Hiram Wilde.
Prof. Hiram Wilde, who died Monday at the age of 82 at his home in Danbury, was a member of the Handel and Haydn society, and he was frequently soloist at its concerts. In Costa's "El Financiero" and in "The Creation,"
"The Messiah," "The Messiah," "The Seasons," etc. He began the teaching of music at the age of 18, and continued it until within a few years of his death. He was born in Danbury and was one of the first to enter the Sietson high school when it was opened in 1840. At the outbreak of the civil war he enlisted at the first call to arms and was commissioned as lieutenant. After two years' service he was commissioned second lieutenant, his regiment, the Second New York infantry, he took part in the march through Georgia. At the close of the war he returned with the rank of major, and at once returned to his music teaching in Boston. Among his pupils were a number who became noted singers.—Springfield Republican.

Want It Stopped.
Ever since 1775 has the bell of the First Baptist church in Providence, R.
I., rung at the hour of 11 o'clock on the evening. When that bell was hung in 1775 the town agreed to pay a fixed amount every year to meet the expense of having it rung three times a day. After clocks and watches came into general use, the bell was run only in colonial times, for sentimental reasons. Now it is proposed to ask the city government to join in stopping the sunrise pealing—and it would appear to be full time this was done.—Springfield Republican.

Newtown.—A mission given by the board of the Newtown Baptist church will begin at 10 o'clock next Sunday and will continue for one week.

NORWICH TOWN

Smith-Pitcher Wedding on Thursday—Guest from Groton—Welcomed Attendants at Baltic Harvest Supper.

On Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock Miss M. Edith Pitcher of Middletown and Albert M. Smith of Groton were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. C. A.
Northrop at his home on Beech drive. The double ring service was used. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Alice Smith and Thomas Smith, brother and sister of the groom.
The bride was becomingly gowned in white silk batiste with black picture hat. The wedding was a very quiet one owing to the recent death of the bride's mother. Beautiful wedding gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for Groton on the noon train for a trip which will include a visit to Providence. The brides' traveling costume was of black stuffed melton. On their return they will reside in Groton furnished rooms on Town street.

Welcomed Home.
When Charles Witchevski of Utica, N. Y., reached his home on Saturday evening for a week's vacation he found a party of friends waiting to welcome him. A party of friends met enjoyed and refreshments were served.
The welcome was planned by his sister. Friends were present from Taft-ville, Greenville and Norwich.

To Attend Convention.
The upper grades of the Town street school will hold no session today (Friday). Principal Tarbox will attend the teachers' convention at Hartford and Mrs. S. S. Lathrop will go to New Haven for the convention to be held
